

In response to your letter dated March 26th, 2014, this is our response to the noted discrepancies.

For the items requiring action section:

1. For the Schedule P validation discrepancy, we have corrected the sum of Schedule P, Part 2A through T, column 4 line 5 to reconcile to Schedule P part summary. It was a 2007 accident year change that somehow didn't cause us a validation error and it didn't affect any other schedules.
2. For Schedule F validation errors (Noted number 2-40), 35 of them (noted number 5-40) were errors where the FEIN or AAIN was not matching up with the NAIC tables. For the non- U.S. alien insurers, they provided a FEIN but needed an AAIN. We have since obtained the AAIN from them and have updated. For the U.S. unaffiliated insurers, they are captives and are not necessarily in the NAIC tables according to the NAIC. We also have reclassified the Eramark Insurer from Non U.S. insurer to U.S. Insurer, as we were not aware that the Virgin Islands designation should have been listed as an U.S. insurer. We also have obtained the missing domiciliary jurisdiction codes for errors 2, 3 and 4. For the U.S. Captive insurers that still create a validation error because of their captive status, we have noted that in the textual validations.
3. For the S.Txt version:
  - Note 1: Ohio Indemnity will provide a reconciliation table on the PDF. We have not done this in the past, only in the electronic notes but we will do so going forward.
  - Note 5: We will include the table of restricted assets for Note 5H in the PDF notes. That will include the numbers from the state deposits from Schedule E part 3 that should have been included in General Interrogatories part 1, question 25.28.
  - Note 9: For Note 9A(2)b2, the PDF notes section is corrected. For 9C(2)e through 9C(2)I, we trued up the $100 difference in the electronic notes.
  - Note 13: The disclosure in the electronic notes for the change in Unassigned funds to cumulative unrealized gains or losses was $1,447,061. This was calculated by taking net unrealized (page 4, line 24) of $955,588 and adding back the capital gains tax of $492,273 (insert page 4 line 24). We can correct by reporting the net figure of $955,588 included on the PDF note 13.
  - Note 19: correct the electronic notes to include HUB International and the address.
