NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Basis of Presentation: These financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the State of Ohio Department of Insurance, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and include management's estimates and assumptions, such as those regarding dental costs and interest rates, that affect the recorded amounts. Significant estimates used in determining insurance liabilities are discussed in the Notes to Statutory Financial Statements.

The principal differences between statutory-basis financial statements presented herein and those prepared on a GAAP basis include non-admitted assets, unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on bonds, deferred income taxes, and bad debt allowances and expenses. These statutory accounting practices disallow certain assets from admission in the Statutory Balance Sheets. These assets, otherwise included on the Company's balance sheets prepared under GAAP, include receivables greater than 90 days past due and certain non-current assets. Under GAAP, bonds classified as available-for-sale are carried at fair value with the related unrealized appreciation (depreciation) recorded as a component of equity. Under statutory accounting principles, bonds are carried principally at amortized cost. Under GAAP, deferred taxes are recorded for any temporary differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities to the extent it is more likely than not that the deferred tax assets are realizable, with changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities recorded as a component of net income tax expense. The amount of deferred tax assets that may be admitted is generally limited based on the Realization Threshold Limitation Table in Statement of Statutory Accounting Principles (SSAP) No. 101, Income Taxes, a Replacement of SSAP 10R and SSAP 10. The net change in the deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized as a separate component of changes in unassigned surplus. Non-admitted assets, consisting of premiums receivable greater than ninety days past due, were $841 as of September 30, 2014, and $1,057 as of December 31, 2013.

B. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with NAIC SAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. It also requires disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

C.

1. Cash and Short-term Investments: Investments with original maturities of one year or less from the time of purchase are classified as cash and short-term investments and are carried at amortized cost.

2. Bonds: Bonds designated highest quality and high quality are carried at amortized cost. All other bonds are carried at the lower of cost or fair value. Bonds are considered impaired and their cost basis is written down to fair value through an asset valuation reserve for credit-related losses or an interest maintenance reserve for interest-related losses, when management expects a decline in value to persist (i.e., the decline is other than temporary). The calculation of gain or loss on the sale of bonds is based on specific identification at the time of sale. The Company stops recognizing interest income when interest payments are 90 days past due or when certain terms (interest rate or maturity date) have been restructured. Investment income on these investments is only recognized when interest payments are received. The Company did not exclude any investment income due and accrued at September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013. Amortization of bond premium or discount is calculated using the scientific (constant yield) interest method.

3. Common stocks are stated at par value.

4. Cigna Dental Health of Ohio, Inc. does not own any preferred stocks.

5. Mortgage Loans are not applicable to the Company.

6. Loan-backed securities are not applicable to the Company.

7. Investments in subsidiaries, controlled and affiliated entities are not applicable to the Company.

8. Investments in joint ventures, partnerships and limited liability companies are not applicable to the Company.

9. Derivatives are not applicable to the Company.

10. Premium Deficiency is not applicable to the Company.

11. Claims payable and unpaid claims adjustment expenses include estimates of payments to be made under health insurance coverage provided by the Company for reported claims and for losses incurred but not yet reported. Management develops these estimates using actuarial methods based upon historical data for claim payment patterns, cost trends, product mix, seasonality, utilization of dental care services and other relevant factors. When estimates change, the Company records the adjustment in dental expenses in the period the change in estimate occurs. Claims payable also includes a reserve for additional administrative expenses associated with unpaid dental claims that are in the process of settlement, as well as those that have been incurred but not yet reported. This reserve is based on the historical relationship between claims handling expenses and incurred claims.

12. Change in capitalization policy is not applicable to the Company.

13. Pharmaceutical rebate receivable is not applicable to the Company.

The Health Insurance Industry Fee will cause Income Tax Incurred and change to deferred income tax to differ by approximately 1.43% from the amount obtained by applying the federal statutory rate of 35% to income before taxes.

NOTE 10 – INFORMATION CONCERNING PARENT, SUBSIDIARIES AND AFFILIATES

Except as noted below, the Company had no significant changes during the current reporting period.

Fee Sharing Agreement (the “agreement”): Several of Cigna Corporation’s (“Cigna”) subsidiaries are subject to the Health Insurance Providers Fee, “the fee”, which is imposed on each covered entity engaged in the business of providing health insurance for any United States health risk. Such entities, along with Cigna, are collectively treated as a single “covered entity” as that term is defined in Section 9010(c) and Treas. Reg. § 57.2(b). By entering into this agreement, each party has consented to select Cigna as its “designated entity” for the payment of this fee. The agreement allows Cigna to pay each year to the U.S. Department of Treasury the fee owed collectively by all covered entities in the group, and to perform all necessary and appropriate actions that may be required to fulfill Cigna's responsibilities as the designated entity. This agreement further allows Cigna to delegate to a wholly owned subsidiary the authority to perform these actions on Cigna's behalf. For financial management and reporting purposes, Cigna and the parties will allocate the fee for each fee year among the parties in proportion to estimates of each party’s premiums for that fee year. This agreement was approved by the Department and is effective for the Company on August 26, 2014.

1. The company has 1,000 shares authorized, 100 shares issued, and 100 shares outstanding. All shares are common shares
2. The Company has no preferred stock outstanding.
3. Without prior approval of its domiciliary commissioner, dividends to stockholders are limited by the laws of the Company's state of incorporation, State of Ohio, and are based on restrictions relating to statutory surplus.
4. Ordinary dividends of $1,280,320 and extraordinary dividends of $ 119,680 were paid by the Company on September 26, 2014.
5. Within the limitations of (3) above, there are no restrictions placed on the portion of Company profits that may be paid as ordinary dividends to stockholders.
6. There were no restrictions placed on the Company’s surplus, including for whom the surplus is being held.
7. Advances to surplus are not applicable to the Company.
8. Conversion of preferred stock, employee stock options and stock purchase warrants are not applicable to the Company.
9. Changes to the balances of special surplus funds from the prior year are due to the recognition of the 2015 Health Insurance Industry fee incurred year-to-date of $125,708.
10. The portion of unassigned funds (surplus) decreased by cumulative unrealized gains and losses are $35

Health care regulation

The business of administering and insuring employee benefit programs, particularly health care programs, is heavily regulated by federal and state laws and administrative agencies, such as state departments of insurance and the federal Departments of Labor and Justice, as well as the courts. Regulation and judicial decisions have resulted in changes to industry and Cigna's business practices and will continue to do so in the future. In addition, Cigna's subsidiaries are routinely involved with various claims, lawsuits and regulatory audits and investigations that could result in financial liability, changes in business practices, or both. Health care regulation in its various forms could have an adverse effect on Cigna's health care operations if it inhibits Cigna's ability to respond to market demands or results in increased medical or administrative costs without improving the quality of care or services.

Other possible regulatory changes that could have an adverse effect on Cigna's employee benefits businesses include:

- additional mandated benefits or services that increase costs without improving the quality of care;
- legislation that would grant plan participants broader rights to sue their healthplans;
- changes in ERISA regulations resulting in increased administrative burdens and costs;
- additional restrictions on the use of prescription drug formularies;
- additional privacy legislation and regulations that interfere with the proper use of medical information for research, coordination of medical care and disease and disability management;
- additional rules establishing the time periods for payment of health care provider claims that vary from state to state;
- legislation that would exempt independent physicians from antitrust laws; and
- changes in federal laws, such as amendments to income tax laws, which could affect the taxation of employer provided benefits.

The health care industry remains under scrutiny by various state and federal government agencies and could be subject to government efforts to bring criminal actions in circumstances that could previously have given rise only to civil or administrative proceedings.

Litigation and Other Legal Matters

Cigna and its subsidiaries (including the Company) are routinely involved in numerous claims, lawsuits, regulatory and IRS audits, investigations and other legal matters arising, for the most part, in the ordinary course of managing a health services business, including payments to providers and benefit level disputes. Such legal matters include benefit claims, breach of contract claims, tort claims, disputes regarding reinsurance arrangements, employment related suits, employee benefit claims, wage and hour claims, and intellectual property and real estate related disputes. Litigation of income tax matters is accounted for under the NAIC's accounting guidance for loss contingencies. Further information can be found in Note 9. The outcome of litigation and other legal matters is always uncertain, and unfavorable outcomes that are not justified by the evidence can occur. The Company believes that it has valid defenses to the legal matters pending against it and is defending itself vigorously.

When the Company (in the course of its regular review of pending litigation and legal matters) has determined that a material loss is reasonably possible, the matter is disclosed. In accordance with applicable accounting guidance, when litigation and regulatory matters present loss contingencies that are both probable and estimable, the Company accrues the estimated loss by a charge to income. The amount accrued represents the Company's best estimate of the probable loss at the time. If only a range of estimated losses can be determined, the Company accrues an amount within the range that, in the Company's judgment, reflects the most likely outcome. In cases that the Company has accrued an estimated loss, the accrued amount may differ materially from the ultimate amount of the relevant costs. In many proceedings, it is inherently difficult to determine whether any loss is probable or even possible or to estimate the amount of any loss. As a litigation or regulatory matter develops, the Company monitors the matter for further developments that could affect the amount previously accrued, if any, and updates such amount accrued or disclosures previously provided as appropriate.

Except as otherwise noted, the Company believes that the legal actions, proceedings and investigations currently pending against it should not have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operation, financial condition or liquidity other than possibly the matters referred to in the following paragraphs. However, in light of the uncertainties involved in these matters, there is no assurance that their ultimate resolution will not exceed the amounts currently accrued by the Company and that an adverse outcome in one or more of these matters could be material to the Company's results of operation, financial condition or liquidity for any particular period.

On February 13, 2008, State of New York Attorney General Andrew M. Cuomo announced an industry-wide investigation into the use of data provided by Ingenix, Inc., a subsidiary of UnitedHealthcare, used to calculate payments for services provided by out-of-network providers. Cigna received four subpoenas from the New York Attorney General's office in connection with this investigation and responded appropriately. On February 17, 2009, Cigna entered into an Assurance of Discontinuance resolving the investigation. In connection with the industry-wide resolution, Cigna contributed $10 million to the establishment of a new non-profit company that now compiles and provides the data formerly provided by Ingenix.

Cigna was named as a defendant in a number of putative nationwide class actions asserting that due to the use of data from Ingenix, Inc., Cigna improperly underpaid claims, an industry-wide issue. All of the class actions were consolidated into Franco v. Connecticut General Life Insurance Company et al. that is pending in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. The consolidated amended complaint, filed on August 7, 2009, asserts claims under ERISA, the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization (RICO) Act, the Sherman Antitrust Act and New Jersey state law on behalf of subscribers, health care providers and various medical associations.

On September 23, 2011, the court granted in part and denied in part Cigna's motion to dismiss the consolidated amended complaint. The court dismissed all claims by the health care provider and medical association plaintiffs for lack of standing to sue, and as a result the case will proceed only on behalf of subscribers. In addition, the court dismissed all of the antitrust claims, the ERISA claims based on disclosure and the New Jersey state law claims. The court did not dismiss the ERISA claims for benefits and claims under the RICO Act.

Plaintiffs filed a motion to certify a nationwide class of subscriber plaintiffs on December 19, 2011, which was denied on January 16, 2013. Plaintiffs petitioned for an immediate appeal of the order denying class certification, but their petition was denied by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit on March 14, 2013, meaning that plaintiffs cannot appeal the denial of that motion for class certification until there is a final judgment in the case. On April 14, 2014, the district court denied a second motion for class certification filed by the plaintiffs. As a result, the case is proceeding in the District Court on behalf of the named plaintiffs only.

It is reasonably possible that others could initiate additional litigation or additional regulatory action against Cigna with respect to use of data provided by Ingenix, Inc. Cigna denies the allegations asserted in the investigations and litigation and will vigorously defend itself in these matters.

Concentration of Business: The Company monitors concentrations within its business in order to identify dependency on one or a few customers. The Company had two customers from which it earned 24% of premium revenue for the period ended September 30, 2014. Individually, these customer(s) amounted to greater than 10% of premium revenue.

NOTE 21 – OTHER ITEMS

Premium Revenue: Amounts charged for dental care services are recognized as revenue in the month for which customers are entitled to dental care. Unearned premiums represent that portion of premiums received which are applicable to the unexpired terms of contracts in force.

Financial Instruments: In the normal course of business, the Company enters into transaction involving various types of financial instruments, including debt and investments such as fixed maturities. These instruments may change in value due to interest rate and market fluctuations, and most have credit risk.

Cigna Investments, Inc., an affiliate of the company, evaluates and monitors each financial instrument individually and, when management considers it appropriate obtains collateral or other forms of security to limit risk of loss.

NOTE 22 – EVENTS SUBSEQUENT

The Company is not aware of any Type I or Type II events that occurred subsequent to the close of the books or accounts for this statement which would have a material effect on the financial condition of the Company. In preparing these financials, the Company has evaluated events that occurred between the balance sheet date and November 15, 2014.

NOTE 25 – CHANGE IN INCURRED CLAIMS AND CLAIMS ADJUSTMENT EXPENSES

Reserve for incurred claims and claims adjustment expenses attributable to insured events has increased by $193,475 from $192,311 at December 31, 2013 to $385,786 at September 30, 2014 as a result of re-estimation of unpaid claims and claims adjustment expenses. This increase is generally the result of ongoing analysis of recent loss development trends.
