B. Use of Estimates in the Preparation of the Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with NAIC SAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. Significant estimates include those used in determining policy and contract liabilities, valuation allowances for invested assets. NAIC SAP also requires disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Significant estimates are discussed throughout these Notes; however, actual results could differ from those estimates.

C. Accounting Policy

1. Cash and Short-term Investments: Investments with original maturities of one year or less from the time of purchase are classified as short-term investments and are carried at amortized cost.

2. Bonds: Bonds designated highest quality and high quality are carried at amortized cost. All other bonds are carried at the lower of cost or fair value. Bonds are considered impaired and their cost basis is written down to fair value through net realized gains (losses), when management expects a decline in value to persist (i.e., the decline is other than temporary). The calculation of gain or loss on the sale of bonds is based on specific identification at the time of sale. The Company stops recognizing interest income when interest payments are 90 days past due or when certain terms (interest rate or maturity date) have been restructured. Net investment income on these investments is only recognized when interest payments are received. The Company did not exclude any investment income due and accrued at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014. Amortization of bond premium or discount is calculated using the scientific (constant yield) interest method.

3. Common Stocks are stated at par value.

4. Cigna Dental Health of Ohio, Inc. does not own any preferred stocks.

5. Mortgage Loans are not applicable to the Company.

6. Loan-backed securities are not applicable to the Company.

7. Investments in subsidiaries, controlled and affiliated entities are not applicable to the Company.
8. Investments in joint ventures, partnerships and limited liability companies are not applicable to the Company.
9. Derivatives are not applicable to the Company.
10. Premium Deficiency is not applicable to the Company.
11. Claims payable and unpaid claims adjustment expenses include estimates of payments to be made under health insurance coverage provided by the Company for reported claims and for losses incurred but not yet reported. Management develops these estimates using actuarial methods based upon historical data for claim payment patterns, cost trends, product mix, seasonality, utilization of dental care services and other relevant factors. When estimates change, the Company records the adjustment in dental care expenses in the period the change in estimate occurs. Unpaid claims adjustment expenses includes a reserve for additional administrative expenses associated with unpaid dental claims that are in the process of settlement, as well as those that have been incurred but not yet reported. This reserve is based on the historical relationship between claims handling expenses and incurred claims.
12. Change in capitalization policy is not applicable to the Company.
13. Pharmaceutical rebate receivable is not applicable to the Company.
14. The Company is included in the consolidated United States federal income tax return filed by Cigna. Pursuant to the Tax Sharing Agreement with Cigna, federal income taxes are allocated to the Company as if it were filing on a separate return basis. The tax benefit of net operating losses, capital losses and tax credits are funded to the extent they reduce the consolidated federal income tax liability. The Company generally recognizes deferred income taxes when assets and liabilities have different values for financial statement and tax reporting purposes (temporary differences). Limitations of the admitted amount of the deferred tax asset are calculated in accordance with SSAP No. 101, Income Taxes, a Replacement of SSAP 10R and SSAP 10.

Litigation and Other Legal Matters

Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company; and collectively known as Cigna Corporation) are routinely involved in numerous claims, lawsuits, regulatory audits, investigations and other legal matters arising, for the most part, in the ordinary course of managing a health services business. These actions may include benefit disputes, breach of contract claims, tort claims, provider disputes, disputes regarding reinsurance arrangements, employment and employment discrimination-related suits, employee benefit claims, wage and hour claims, privacy, intellectual property claims and real estate related disputes. There are currently, and may be in the future, attempts to bring class action lawsuits against the industry. Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company) also are regularly engaged in IRS audits and may be subject to examinations by various state and foreign taxing authorities. Disputed income tax matters arising from these examinations, including those resulting in litigation, are accounted for under the NAIC's accounting guidance for tax loss contingencies.

The business of administering and insuring health services programs, particularly health care and group insurance programs, is heavily regulated by federal and state laws and administrative agencies, such as state departments of insurance and the U.S. Departments of Health and Human Services, Treasury, Labor and Justice, as well as the courts. Health care regulation and legislation in its various forms, including the implementation of Health Care Reform, other regulatory reform initiatives, such as those relating to Medicare programs, or additional changes in existing laws or regulations or their interpretations, could have an adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition, there is heightened review by federal and state regulators of the health care, disability and life insurance industry business and related reporting practices. Cigna and its subsidiaries (including the Company) are frequently the subject of regulatory market conduct reviews and other examinations of its business and reporting practices, audits and investigations by state insurance and health and welfare departments, state attorneys general, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") and the Office of Inspector General ("OIG"). With respect to Cigna's Medicare Advantage business, the CMS and OIG perform audits to determine a health plan's compliance with federal regulations and contractual obligations, including compliance with proper coding practices (sometimes referred to as Risk Adjustment Data Validation audits or RADV audits), that may result in retrospective adjustments to payments made to health plans. Regulatory actions can result in assessments, civil or criminal fines or penalties or other sanctions, including loss of licensing or exclusion from participating in government programs.

Regulation, legislation and judicial decisions have resulted in changes to industry and Cigna and its subsidiaries' (including the Company's) business practices, financial liability or other sanctions and will continue to do so in the future.

When the Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company) (in the course of its regular review of pending litigation and legal or regulatory matters) have determined that a material loss is reasonably possible, the matter is disclosed. In accordance with statutory accounting principles, when litigation and regulatory matters present loss contingencies that are both probable and estimable, the Company accrues the estimated loss by a charge to income. The amount accrued represents the Company's best estimate of the probable loss at the time. If only a range of estimated losses can be determined, the Company accrues an amount within the range that, in the Company's judgment, reflects the most likely outcome. In cases when the Company has accrued an estimated loss, the accrued amount may differ materially from the ultimate amount of the loss. In many proceedings, it is inherently difficult to determine whether any loss is probable or even possible or to estimate the amount or range of any loss. The Company provides disclosure in the aggregate for material pending litigation and legal or regulatory matters, including accruals, range of loss, or a statement that such information cannot be estimated. As a litigation or regulatory matter develops, the Company monitors the matter for further developments that could affect the amount previously accrued, if any, and updates such amount accrued or disclosures previously provided as appropriate.

The outcome of litigation and other legal or regulatory matters is always uncertain and unfavorable outcomes that are not justified by the evidence or existing law can occur. Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company) believe that it has valid defenses to the matters pending against it and is defending itself vigorously. Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company) believes that the legal actions, regulatory matters, proceedings and investigations currently pending against it should not have a material adverse effect on the Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries' (including the Company) results of operation, financial condition or liquidity based upon current knowledge and taking into consideration current accruals. Due to numerous uncertain factors presented in these cases, it is not possible to estimate an aggregate range of loss (if any) for these matters at this time. In light of the uncertainties involved in these matters, there is no assurance that their ultimate resolution will not exceed the amounts currently accrued by the Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company). An adverse outcome in one or more of these matters could be material to the Cigna Corporation and its subsidiaries' (including the Company) results of operations, financial condition or liquidity for any particular period.

Ingenix. In April 2004, Cigna Corporation (of which, the Company is a subsidiary) was sued in a number of putative nationwide class actions alleging that Cigna Corporation improperly underpaid claims for out-of-network providers through the use of data provided by Ingenix, Inc., a subsidiary of one of Cigna Corporation's competitors. These actions were consolidated into Franco v. Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, et al., pending in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. The consolidated amended complaint, filed in 2009 on behalf of subscribers, health care providers and various medical associations, asserted claims related to benefits and disclosure under ERISA, the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations ("RICO") Act, the Sherman Antitrust Act and New Jersey state law and seeks recovery for alleged underpayments from 1998 through the present. Other major health insurers have been the subject of, or have settled, similar litigation.

In September 2011, the District Court (1) dismissed all claims by the health care provider and medical association plaintiffs for lack of standing; and (2) dismissed the antitrust claims, the New Jersey state law claims and the ERISA disclosure claim. In January 2013 and again in April 2014, the District Court denied separate motions by the plaintiffs to certify a nationwide class of subscriber plaintiffs. The Third Circuit denied plaintiff's request for an immediate appeal of the January 2013 ruling. As a result, the case is proceeding on behalf of the named plaintiffs only. In June 2014, the District Court granted Cigna Corporation's motion for summary judgment to terminate all claims, and denied the plaintiffs' partial motion for summary judgment. In July 2014, the plaintiffs appealed all of the District Court's decisions in favor of Cigna Corporation, including the class certification decision, to the Third Circuit. Cigna Corporation will continue to vigorously defend its position.

Concentration of Business: The Company monitors concentrations within its business in order to identify dependency on one or a few customers. The Company had two major customer, which accounted for approximately 23% of the Company's premium revenue for the period ended June 30, 2015.
