- J. Real Estate
On June 30, 2025, the Company entered into an agreement for the sale of certain real estate assets. The transaction did not qualify for sale accounting due to the Company's continuing involvement in the real estate assets in the form of a six month rent-free occupancy period and a twelve month lease extension and renewal option for a fixed monthly rental rate. As such, the transaction has been accounted for as a financing arrangement that did not result in any gain recognition. The underlying assets remain on the Company's statutory balance sheet and have not been derecognized. The proceeds received from the agreement have been recorded as a liability, not as revenue, with interest expense recognized over the rent-free occupancy period using an implied interest rate derived from the present value of expected lease payments. This treatment reflects the Company's continuing control over the asset and the lack of substantive transfer of risks and rewards of ownership.
